

Indianapolis Web Site Designers Relocate to Historic Fort Benjamin Harrison

Indianapolis Web Design | Indianapolis Web Development | Indianapolis Internet Marketing

(PRWEB) June 9, 2010 -- Narrow Gate Media, a leading provider of web site services in Indianapolis (web design, web development, and internet marketing) have relocated from downtown Indianapolis, Indiana to historic Fort Benjamin Harrison, located on the upper northeast side of Indy. Mr. Vaught, Narrow Gate owner, said “The space is larger, providing for growth, and much more tranquil, providing a more suitable environment for our creative web designers, web site developers, and internet marketing staff”.

Mr Vaught continues, “We are excited about the new space. It’s simply a great atmosphere to work in. We believe the new location will help us provide more effective website solutions for our Indianapolis web design clients.”

About The Fort

Fort Benjamin Harrison was a U.S. Army post named for the 23rd United States President, Benjamin Harrison. Land was purchased in 1903, with the post being officially named for President Harrison in honor of Indianapolis being his hometown. Today, Fort Benjamin Harrison was closed as part of the 1996 Base Realignment and Closure Commission. The site of the base has since been redeveloped, and includes residential neighborhoods, a golf course, and is the site of Fort Harrison State Park.

Narrow Gate Media is located on the southside of the Fort. The address is 8902 Otis Ave, Indianapolis, Indiana, 46216. Please send all request for proposals and/or request for quotes to this new location or you can submit your Indianapolis web design, web development, and internet marketing project online.
