FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lexington, KY -- Media Corp. Inc., The Omni Intermedia Awards recognizes outstanding production, design and content in the converging fields of television, film, video, internet, interactive media and 3D animation.

Two of the top Omni's went to Narrow Gate Media, LLC of Indianapolis, IN for the productions entitled JP Greene & Associates website and Urban Space website. After judging these entries, the awards committee honored each for capturing the quality and content that achieved our highest standards of excellence.

In order to judge the entries, the Omni Awards brings together a wide variety of talented professionals working for highly respected companies. Each of the areas of this competition was evaluated by a board of advisors in their respective areas of expertise.

Omni Intermedia Awards have been presented to many different companies, including Dreamworks SKG, Discovery Channel, Animal Planet, Learning Channel, Arthur Andersen, Eastman Kodak, Ford, MTV, VH1, Telemundo, Warner Brothers, WFAA-TV, CNN, Phillips Design Group, PBS, U.S. Army, Canon USA, Drury Design Group and the National Gallery of Art.

Jim Owens, Senior Administrator of the Omni Awards said, "This award recognizes the converging fields of media production and rewards those companies who can capture the imagination and effectively communicate their message."
