

A Narrowgate Media Opportunity: An Award-winning Screenplay

GENRE: A female-driven, faith-based family drama

LOGLINE: A troubled teen who caused a car accident that left her mother in a coma finds herself stranded on a Vermont horse farm with a handsome young Christian determined to save her soul.

SYNOPSIS: After her recklessness causes a car accident that leaves her mother in a coma, a guilt-ridden New York teen is sent to a quiet Vermont horse farm to stay with a compassionate waitress and Will, a sensitive ex-juvie with a complicated past. But instead of accepting the grace around her, she spirals, drawn to a dangerous horse no one can reach and a mesmerizing drug dealer. When long-buried secrets surface from the pages of her mother's journal, she's forced to question everything about who she is. With her choices growing riskier and Will caught in the fallout, it will take more than forgiveness to save them. It will take a deep love rooted in faith. Major themes include family conflict and our core beliefs about God, sex, and the value of human life.

AUDIENCE: Girls, teens, and young adults ages 15-35 and their mothers, grandmothers, and family members of all ages
